WELCOME-MESSAGE

Dear All,

It is our great pleasure to welcome you to the Global Congress on Power and Energy Engineering (Power Summit-2025), taking place from November 10-12, 2025, in Valencia, Spain. This prestigious event brings together researchers, industry experts, and policymakers from around the world to explore the latest innovations and challenges in power and energy engineering. Over the next three days, you will have the opportunity to engage in insightful discussions, attend keynote sessions by renowned experts, and network with fellow professionals dedicated to shaping the future of sustainable energy.

We are honored to host you and look forward to an inspiring and productive conference.

Welcome to Power Summit-2025!

ABOUT VALENCIA

Valencia is a vibrant city located on the eastern coast of Spain, along the Mediterranean Sea. As the third-largest city in the country, it is known for its stunning architecture, beautiful beaches, and rich cultural heritage.

Key Highlights of Valencia:

City of Arts and Sciences: An iconic modern complex featuring interactive museums, an oceanarium, and an IMAX cinema. It's a must-visit for architecture and science enthusiasts.

Historic Old Town (Ciutat Vella): Explore landmarks like the Valencia Cathedral, La Lonja de la Seda (a UNESCO World Heritage Site), and Plaza de la Virgen.

Turia Gardens: A scenic green space that stretches through the city, perfect for leisurely walks, cycling, and enjoying nature.

Las Fallas Festival: Held every March, this world-famous festival features elaborate sculptures, fireworks, and vibrant street celebrations.

Cuisine: Valencia is the birthplace of paella, a traditional rice dish, and offers a variety of delicious Mediterranean cuisine.

Beaches: The city boasts beautiful beaches like Playa de la Malvarrosa and Playa de las Arenas for relaxation and water sports.

With its blend of historical charm and modern innovation, Valencia offers a memorable experience for visitors. Whether you're attending a conference, exploring local culture, or simply enjoying the Mediterranean atmosphere, the city has something for everyone.
